PIVA

Bringing a touch of Elizabethan life to Walton Hall, Piva - The Renaissance Collective are a group of multi instrumentalists who bring the music of the 16th century to life. Since forming in 2002, Piva have firmly established themselves as one of the UK's leading early music ensembles. The group specialises in playing popular dance and ballad music of the late 16th century, giving it their own fresh and innovative approach. In their performances, they play a range of instruments from recorders, viols and violins, through to bagpipes, shawms and curtals. With backgrounds in renaissance, classical and roots music, they combine their influences to create music of the past played for today.
