Exemption I.

Unoccupied property where the former resident is receiving care elsewhere.

A property is exempt from paying council if it is empty because the person whose name appears on the Council Tax bill had to leave the property permanently to live elsewhere to receive care, and nobody else has lived there in-between.

The person whom is being cared for must require care for one of the following reasons:-

- Old age
- Disablement
- Illness
- Past or present alcohol or drug dependence
- Past or present mental disorder.
