

24th September 2017

Local Plan Preferred Development Option Consultation

I disagree with the proposals in their entirety.

The online consultation questionnaire appears to have been designed to limit the response from local people.

All the questions could have been included on one page.

