Adult Social Services
Make your experience count

Do you have:

• a concern, comment, compliment or complaint?

• something to say about our services?

June 2017
It’s important we get your feedback - concerns, comments, compliments and complaints

Warrington Borough Council is committed to providing high standards of service. You can help us to do this by telling us when we do things well or badly and by suggesting ways to improve services. Adult social care services provide support for thousands of individuals and families in the Warrington area, so it’s really important we hear what you think about our services.

You may not be satisfied, for example, about:

• the quality of the service you are receiving

• the way you have been treated

• being given insufficient information or wrong advice

The best way for us to make improvements is to listen to what you have to say and learn from it.

Your comments will be welcomed.

Making a complaint

You should start by explaining your concerns to the member of staff with who you are in direct contact. If that is not possible, or if you are still not happy, you should ask to speak to that person’s manager or the customer service team. Most problems can be sorted out quickly through discussion.

If you are still not satisfied, you may ask for the matter to be investigated as a formal complaint. For this, you should contact either the manager of the service or the customer service team at:

Warrington Borough Council
Families and Wellbeing
New Town House
Buttermarket Street
Warrington
WA1 2NH
Telephone: 01925 443111

Putting your complaint in writing can be the clearest way of making your point. If you prefer, you can make your complaint by visiting or telephoning ‘Contact Warrington’ based in the town centre:

Who can make a complaint?

We want to hear from you if you:

• receive a service from us
• are the representative and acting in the interests of someone who receives a service from us
• have been refused a service for which you believe you qualify

You can do this yourself or get a friend or relative to help you.

What happens next?

When you contact us we will acknowledge your contact within three working days. An Investigating Officer will then get in touch with you to listen to what you have to say and understand what your problem or concern is. They will agree with you the best way to deal with it and a timescale in which to resolve it.

Your feedback about our services gives us a valuable opportunity to learn and improve. We will let you know what actions we will take as a result of our enquiries into the issues you raised.

Please be assured that the information you give us will be treated in confidence and is covered by the data protection act. However we may ask for your consent to share information where necessary to resolve any issues you might raise.
Other options open to you

If you are concerned about possible abuse or neglect in a situation, or the quality or safety of services provided, this could be linked to a safeguarding issue. Safeguarding is the name of the process agencies follow to protect vulnerable adults from abuse or neglect. Warrington Borough Council with partner agencies, such as health services and the police, work closely together to do this following clearly agreed procedures.

Abuse is mistreatment by any other person which denies someone the civil and human rights to which everybody is entitled. There are different kinds of abuse such as financial, physical, sexual, psychological, or neglect, and it can happen anywhere, even in a person’s own home, in a nursing home or a hospital.

If you feel that someone who is vulnerable is being abused, or is likely to be at risk of abuse, or you yourself are being abused, you can call:
