7. Important

When submitting an application for a licence to drive a hackney carriage or private hire vehicle, applicants are required to declare all previous allegations and/or convictions they may have. Applicants are also required to declare all formal cautions and all endorsable fixed penalties they have received and to provide details of all criminal matters of which they are currently the subject of criminal investigation or prosecution.

Any person applying for a position as a licensed driver should be aware that this role is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. This means that no offence can be treated as ever being spent.

Applicants must complete this section or write the word 'none' across the boxes below if the applicant is satisfied that they have nothing to declare.

| Please disclose *all detailed below (if a renewal, list any offences listed below since your last renewal) | | | |
