

Local elections and Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) elections

Easy Read information

On Thursday 2 May 2024, there will be local elections in England.

At these elections you will need to bring photo ID to be able to vote at a polling station.

Lots of photo ID will be ok, like passports, driving licences and cards with a PASS mark on them.

The name on your ID should be the same name you used to register to vote.

If you don't have an accepted form of ID, you can apply for a free voter ID document known as a Voter Authority Certificate.

The deadline to apply for a voter ID is Wednesday 24 April at 5pm.

To find out more information, including which forms of ID will be accepted, how to apply for a Voter Authority Certificate if you need one and what will happen at the polling station:
